

W.P.S.B. No. 228 of 2004

Hon. V.S. Sirpurkur, C.J.

Hon. Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard Mr. Ramji Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. J.P. Joshi, learned counsel for the H.N.B.Garhwal University.

We do not find any merit whatsoever in this writ petition. It is apparent from the contents of the petition that the petitioner has already become over-age and she is continuing from year to year as part time lecturer. So far as appointment as part time lecturer is concerned, the petitioner can be appointed on the basis of the preference as it is assured in the advertisement. We think that it is sufficient protection to the petitioner. In view of that, the petition is dismissed.
